

BHRS Training Competencies

NAME: _____ DATE: _____

Name three of the six CASSP principles

Who should attend an ISPT meeting? (Name as many as possible)

Name three things that a TSS should never do

Circle three areas of child development

- | | |
|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Social Development | Emotional Development |
| Regressed Development | Housing Development |
| Physical Development | Program Development |

What is the difference between internalizing and externalizing disorders?

Name three common side effects of psychotropic medication

The law surrounding confidentiality of medical records is known as

The TSS should be transferring skills on how to work with the child to other adults. These skills are outlined in the

What are three common requirements for documentation of progress notes?

Treatment goals should be (circle all that apply)

- Measurable Unclear Achievable Long Impossible

Professional services should always serve as an addition to:

The criteria that Medical Assistance uses to determine the need for services is known as

Circle the correct answer:

Therapeutic Staff Support are (psychologically/medically) necessary, individualized, (one-on-one/group) treatment of a child's behavioral health needs directed by a child's (treatment plan/IEP) goals, objectives and planned interventions in the (agency's/office/child's home and community).